

The children's clothing charity

Become a Mum's the Word 'Guardian' by giving a minimum of £5 a month.

It is estimated there are 143 million orphans in the world and 100 million children living on the streets. Mum's the Word collects used children's clothes and distributes to those in need.

We also collect financially and partner with projects that benefit poor children around the world, such as the building and running of orphanages.

At Mum's the Word we rely on the practical support and partnering of passionate individuals to our cause. We are fuelled by the thought that everyone has the power to help.

We can't change the world but together we can change the world for a few.

Thank you for joining us.
